

Christine L. White

Christine White joined the Health System in October 2014 as Vice President. Previously, Christine was a staff attorney in the Northeast Regional Office of the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), where she worked primarily on healthcare policy and enforcement matters including hospital and physician mergers and acquisitions as well as issues relating to the formation and operation of Accountable Care Organizations and other network joint ventures. During her tenure, she received the 2013 FTC Award for Outstanding Scholarship based on her work as a lead author and editor of the book Antitrust & Healthcare: A Comprehensive Guide. Prior to joining the FTC, Christine was a partner in the Health Law and Antitrust practice groups of Crowell & Moring LLP, Bingham Mccutchen LLP and McDermott Will & Emery LLP.

Christine has been active for many years in both the American Health Lawyers Association, where she currently is Chair of the Antitrust Practice Group, and the Antitrust Section of the American Bar Association. She holds a J.D. and M.P.H. from Boston University and a B.A. cum laude from Wellesley College.

50847 v.1